KETCHUM, Idaho (December 18, 2017) – Knob Hill Inn, a premier, European-style boutique hotel located in the heart of the Sun Valley-Ketchum region, has appointed Timothy Mott as general manager. A lifelong resident of Sun Valley, Mott originally started at Knob Hill Inn in 2013 and has since risen through the ranks, filling key roles in operations and management. As general manager, Mott will oversee all hotel operations and team members while maintaining the Inn’s commitment to creating authentic and remarkable guest experiences.

“I’ve been a part of the Knob Hill team for almost five years and can confidently say we offer a guest experience that is truly first in class,” said Mott. “Our staff pride themselves on being local Sun Valley experts: we know this town and the best in skiing, hiking, dining and more. I look forward to continuing working with our great team to ensure Knob Hill is the ultimate home base for guests looking for a mix of relaxation, adventure and exploring the best Idaho has to offer.”

Mott brings a deep understanding and extensive knowledge of hotel operations to the position. Growing up, he watched his mother have a successful career in the hospitality industry, managing Sun Valley Resort for 20 years. Before arriving at Knob Hill Inn, Mott served as assistant general manager at The Club at Big Bear Village in Big Bear Lake, Calif. in 2010.

“Tim has been an essential member of the team since coming to Knob Hill Inn,” said John Oppenheimer, co-owner of Knob Hill Inn and founder and CEO of Columbia Hospitality. “As a premier lodging destination in the Sun Valley area, it’s important that those in management are fully committed to creating raving fans, both among guests and team members. With Tim’s background in the hospitality industry and proven leadership skills, we’re confident that he will excel in his new role and continue to provide unforgettable experiences.”

Mott currently resides in Sun Valley with his wife and two sons, ages 12 and 16. He enjoys all that Idaho has to offer and spends his free time skiing, golfing, fishing, camping and cheering on the Chicago Cubs.
