📅 👤 Ron Engeldinger

The mountains of central and western Idaho are renowned for their scenery and recreational opportunities. With picturesque towns situated in the shadow of the rugged peaks, the area also offers a variety of outstanding venues for meeting and event planners to consider. Nestled along the lakes of the Payette River Valley, the towns of McCall and Cascade offer a variety of options for planners, while the Sawtooth Mountains provide a scenic backdrop to the town of Ketchum and the Sun Valley region.

KETCHUM AND SUN VALLEY

Nestled in the middle of Idaho's picturesque Sawtooth Mountains, Ketchum sits at the center of Sun Valley, one of the West's most popular recreation areas. Opportunities for outdoor recreation abound in Sun Valley. More than that, Sun Valley is an attractive area for visitors who simply want to bask in the mountain scenery and explore the arts culture, dining and entertainment of the area. With more than 250 days of sunshine each year, the bright, crisp mountain air and spectacular scenery of Ketchum and the Sun Valley area attract visitors year-round.

Sun Valley is located in central Idaho, a two and one-half hour drive from Boise. The region's airport, Friedman Memorial Airport, is located 13 miles from Ketchum, offering non-stop service from many major Western cities.

Meet and Stay

Located in the center of Ketchum, the recently-opened Limelight Hotel has been built with the goal of becoming the community's gathering place. With all the modern comforts and easy access to all that the Sun Valley area has to offer, the brand-new facility is an attractive choice for a meeting or retreat.

Bringing the old-world charm of a European mountain ski chalet to the mountain wonderland of Sun Valley, the Knob Hill Inn is an all-season destination resort. The Inn's large guest rooms and suites are elegantly appointed and feature superb mountain views. Offering a variety of indoor and outdoor meeting spaces, Knob Hill Inn is an excellent choice for a small conference or executive retreat.

The Sun Valley Resort is a full-service retreat and convention center. It can accommodate groups from 20 to 1,000 in a variety of indoor and outdoor spaces. The fresh mountain air, alpine beauty and first-class amenities of the Resort make it an impressive setting for any conference, retreat or special event.

Out and About

Groups seeking to supplement their meetings with outdoor activities will find what they want here. In the winter, world-class downhill skiing and snowboarding are highlights, and more than 100 miles of groomed terrain offer ideal conditions for cross-country skiing. Ice skating, snowmobiling and heli-skiing in the backcountry are also available. Summer offers golf, hiking, biking, fly fishing and whitewater sports.

For more tranquil activities, groups can enjoy the shopping, dining, and nightlife of Ketchum and Sun Valley. The town of Ketchum abounds with interesting boutiques and art galleries, a variety of restaurants and fun nightlife.
