Sun Valley hotels are extremely dog friendly.

Lastly and perhaps most effectively, many of Sun Valley's most popular hotels are dog friendly, a stance pup-loving Boiseans can particularly appreciate. Some, like the Knobb Hill Inn, go a step farther, offering packages aimed specifically at making your furry friend feel at home. Knobb Hill's deal, the "Wagging Tail Escape," includes perks like a doggie travel bowl, a dog treat, a special temporary tag for your dog with the hotel's contact information on it and even an optional matched donation to the local animal shelter in your dog's name. Plus, it promotes its deal with ridiculously cute Facebook posts and tweets—just check out the one below.
